Teórico

This image shows a full page of blank handwriting practice paper. It features multiple sets of horizontal lines across the entire page. Each set consists of three lines: two outer red lines defining the height of the letters and a central blue line for the baseline. The sets are repeated down the page, providing ample space for practicing letter formation and alignment. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

This image shows a full page of primary-ruled paper. It features multiple sets of horizontal lines designed to guide young learners' handwriting. Each set consists of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These sets are repeated vertically down the entire page, providing ample space for practicing letter formation and alignment. The paper is otherwise blank, with no text or other markings.
